Group Study Room Policy

Campus Learning Commons (an invented facility for UNIV198)

Version 3. Effective 1 September 2026. Replaces version 2 (2025).

1. Purpose and scope

1.1 This policy applies to the eight group study rooms on floors 1 and 2 of the Learning Commons.

1.2 It replaces the 2025 policy (version 2). Where the two differ, this version applies.

2. Who may book, and how much

2.1 Any registered student may book a room for a group of at least three members. A group may book up to 6 hours per week, in blocks of no more than 2 hours.

2.2 Bookings open 7 days ahead and are made online through the Learning Commons booking page.

2.3 Note: the weekly limit was 8 hours under the 2025 policy. Bookings made before 1 September 2026 keep the old limit until they expire.

3. Arriving, cancelling and no-shows

3.1 A booking may be cancelled online up to 2 hours before its start.

3.2 If no member of the group has arrived 15 minutes after the start of the booking, the booking is cancelled and the room is released to the next group.

3.3 A cancellation later than 2 hours before the start, or a non-arrival under 3.2, counts as a no-show. Three no-shows in a semester suspend the group's booking rights for 14 days.

4. Using the room

4.1 Covered drinks are allowed; food is not.

4.2 Whiteboard markers are available at the service desk against a student ID card, and must be returned at the end of the booking.

4.3 Leave the room as you found it. Report any damage at the service desk before you leave.

4.4 Rooms are not soundproof. Keep voices at conversation level; music and video with sound require headphones.

5. The rooms

Room	Floor	Seats	Screen	Booking window
101	1	4	no	7 days
102	1	6	yes	7 days
103	1	6	no	7 days
104	1	8	yes	7 days
201	2	4	no	7 days
202	2	8	yes	7 days
203	2	10	yes	7 days
204	2	12	no	3 days

5.1 Room 204 is a seminar room shared with the teaching timetable; it can be booked only 3 days ahead.

6. Questions

6.1 Questions about this policy go to the Learning Commons service desk during opening hours.
